

Best Spring Tonic

Doctors of All Schools Agree That the Best Tonic-Stimulant to Build Up the System That is Run Down and Weakened by the Long Strain of Winter and to Drive Out Spring Fever and Malaria is Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, the World's Greatest Medicine.

By springtime everyone is in a more or less played out condition—just right to catch any disease. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey aids in destroying the disease germs, and by its building and healing properties restores tissues in a gradual, healthy and natural manner. As a tonic and stimulant it is the greatest strength giver known to science. It is a wonderful specific for use at this time of the year to enrich the blood and strengthen the system which has been weakened by the long siege of winter and which needs building up from the attacks of coughs, colds, pneumonia, grippe, asthma, bronchitis and other winter ills which everyone is subject to. It aids digestion, quickens the heart action and restores health and vigor.

Tonic and Stimulant.

"I am very well acquainted with Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and consider it equal to the best in the market for medical purposes whenever a stimulant and tonic is needed. It is pure, palatable and a very beneficial stimulant, and I have prescribed it for years."—Dr. Edw. C. Tinsley, 1117 E. 19th St., Indianapolis, Ind.

Ministers of the gospel, doctors of medicine, nurses and people everywhere unite in commending Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey—the only perfect tonic stimulant, the one true medicinal whiskey.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

has to its credit fifty years of success, without a question as to its merits as a remedial agent. It is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant and tonic. During this time it has brought the blessings of health to overworked men, delicate women and sickly children who find in it the strength-giving properties that are so necessary to them. It makes the old feel young and keeps the young strong and vigorous. It is prescribed by doctors and is recognized as a family medicine everywhere.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It is an absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey, and is sold in SEALED BOTTLES ONLY—never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price $1.00 per bottle. Medical Department, The Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y., for a free illustrated medical booklet, containing testimonials and other common sense rules for health and free doctor's advice.

MAJOR WERNER'S THOUGHTS TURN TO WASHINGTON WARD

Hand of Law Must Reach Out Now to Swansboro, and Eye Must Rest on Oak Grove and Its People.

Sitting in his office yesterday and gazing with envious eyes on the aquiline disporting themselves in the Capitol Square and almost wishing that he were as irresponsible as one of them, Major Werner thought dismally of what he was going to do with Washington Ward. Washington Ward was born the night before, and not as with most children, little preparation had been made for her advent into the family of the city of Richmond.

Even now, in some portions of the annexed territory, which was born several years ago, a patrol box is stationed in cornfields, and hustling farmers work their crops by the light of electric lamps. Way down on the outskirts of Fulton, and far on the borders of Fairmount, where the streets look like furrows, the countrymen, who are not yet used to city ways and manners, use the patrol box for scarecrows. Sometimes an officer has some difficulty in finding his box, the corn grows so high about them. Recently a policeman was greeted by the "caw, caw" of a crow perched on the box, and he had to shoot the bird of darkness away so that he could turn in his call. The crow circled round and circled round, and then it came.

"Some of them officers certainly has funny voices," said the man at the other end of the line. "Seemed to me like he was talking to somebody." With this state of affairs, the chief views with some dismay his new territory in the fair fields of Oak Grove and the borders of Swansboro. In these delightful pastures a bluecoat is never seen and a burglar's kit is unknown. There is nothing for a burglar to worry about, and the law is as good as dead. When an officer comes to an officer whenever they find him. But these rural scenes and picnic places must be patrolled, and Major Werner is the man to do it. He is now going to go to Fairmount and Fulton, but when he has to reach out to Oak Grove and Swansboro, "then, then," sighed the chief, "that's a kind fate which will befall me in the past be with me in the future." He looked again at the squirrels, and then began figuring on the pleasant times of Oak Grove, where Squire Cheatham was wont to be the high monkey-monk, and on the rural borders of Swansboro, sweet as the Auburn of Goldsmith's song.

BREWER'S SUCCESSOR

Congressman Goldfoyle Suggests the Name of Louis Marshall, of New York. Washington, D. C., April 5.—New York Congressman Goldfoyle, of New York, called at the White House and suggested the name of Louis Marshall as Justice Brewer's successor on the Supreme Court bench. The President added Mr. Marshall's name to the list of available Supreme Court material that he has been considering. Mr. Marshall is a member of the law firm of Guggenheim, Untermeyer & Marshall, of New York City. Judge Bradford, of Maryland, was another name formally presented to the President, and the entire Iowa delegation in Congress will urge the President to appoint Justice Deemer, or the Iowa Supreme Court. "The chances are now that the President will be in no hurry to select Justice Brewer's successor. The President's friends do not look for an appointment for a month or more unless the Supreme Court happens to be divided by a vote of four to three on some of the big cases pending before it, and a rehearing is deemed advisable. In that event the President undoubtedly will be asked to name Justice Brewer's successor as soon as possible."

MOTHER'S FRIEND

A LINIMENT FOR EXTERNAL USE.

Baby's coming will be a time of rejoicing, and not of apprehension and fear, if Mother's Friend is used by the expectant mother in preparation of the event. This is not a medicine to be taken internally, but a liniment to be applied to the body, to assist nature in the necessary physical changes of the system. Mother's Friend is composed of oils and medicines which prepare the muscles and tendons for the unusual strain, render the ligaments supple and elastic, aids in the expanding of the skin and flesh fibres, and strengthens all the membranes and tissues. It lessens the pain and danger at the crisis, and assures future health to the mother. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book, containing valuable information for expectant Mothers.

THE BRADFIELD CO., ATLANTA, GA.

M'CARTHY SLATED TO BE BOOKKEEPER

Auditing Committee Will Elect When Law Goes Into Effect

STATUE IS CONTRACTED FOR

Replica of Houdon's Work to Go to France—Pharmacy Board to Meet.

As soon as the law recently passed by the Legislature creating the office of State Accountant becomes effective, which will be at the end of ninety days after its approval by the Governor, the Joint Legislative Auditing Committee will recommend to the Governor the name of Carlton McCarthy, of Richmond, to fill the office.

The committee, composed of Senators Pollock and Bailey and Delegates Harwood, Deal and Spensard, met at the Capitol yesterday. It was found at once that there was no emergency clause in the bill, and that it was impossible for the committee to act at this time. The law provides that the Governor shall make the appointment upon the recommendation of this committee.

However, in order to make preparation for the establishment of a uniform system of bookkeeping, as intended by the bill, the committee decided to secure the services of Mr. McCarthy as secretary of the committee, and in that capacity he will do the preliminary work of a State Accountant during the next few months. As specified in the bill, the office is created as of date July 1.

A small appropriation was made by the Legislature for the expense of this committee, and out of this the committee can pay its clerk.

Practically no other business was transacted. It was determined to leave the selection of an assistant until a later date. The committee adjourned to meet in Richmond on June 1. The selection of Captain McCarthy was decided upon before the adjournment of the Legislature, the members of the auditing committee having pledged their votes to him.

CONTRACT FOR STATUE

Houdon Commission Will Take Replica to France in August.

At a formal meeting of the Houdon Statue Commission, held at the Capitol yesterday, it was decided to ratify the contract made in Washington Monday with Gorham, of Providence, R. I., for a replica of the Houdon Washington statue, to be presented by Virginia to the republic of France. The statue, the work of the late sculptor, was decided upon before the adjournment of the Legislature, the members of the auditing committee having pledged their votes to him.

The first of the series of five faculty lectures for the session was given at Richmond College last night by Professor R. E. Gaines on Graphical Methods.

In the introductory part of the lecture, attention was called to the fact that while geometry in the hands of the Greeks was developed to a high degree of perfection more than 2,000 years ago, it was centuries after that several times that mathematicians in trying to solve a specific problem have been led to the discovery of a new branch of mathematics. As an illustration of this the lecturer cited a case of two gamblers appealing to Pascal to know how in an interrupted game of cards the stakes should be divided. This question, the lecturer said, laid the foundations for the theory of probabilities.

Attended by Frenchman.

The lecturer, an Englishman, had a similar history. There was a

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Pianos that stand

There are many number of Pianos that look well and sound fairly well—AT THE START. You can buy cheap Pianos that do that; but a Piano should be made to last a lifetime. If it only "stands" a few months it is dear at any price.

Emerson Pianos

are of the kind that "STAND." They are safe instruments to buy. They stand the wear and tear of every day usage, and with ordinary care three generations of children may practice on one. Besides their known goodness you have our guarantee—exchange if not satisfactory.

The Crafts Piano Co.,

Fifth and Grace Streets

That Engagement or Wedding Ring

Certainly it must be a dependable one—one that time cannot change nor use make less beautiful.

Never have we offered a more varied showing of more excellent, charming Rings of first quality.

There is not a stone nor a shape that isn't ready for you and for "Her."

J. T. Allen & Co.,

Jewelers, Fourteenth and Main Streets, Richmond, Va.

BIG GAIN FOR DEMOCRATS

Get Majority in Chicago City Council for First Time in Many Years.

Chicago, Ill., April 5.—Democrats today gained a majority in the City Council for the first time in several years. Of the 35 Aldermen chosen, from each ward, the Democrats elected 21, the Republicans 12, and the Independents 2.

The new Council will be composed of 23 Democrats, 29 Republicans, and 2 Independents.

Excuse for the arrests of about forty saloonkeepers for keeping open during voting time, the election was made.

FISHER'S, 313 East Broad Street.

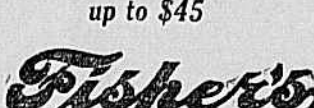

Here's an Easy One

We have neglected telling you about our $15.00, $18.00 and $20.00 Suits, not because they were not worth mentioning, but for the reason that they generally sell without "boasting"; yet there are some men who believe this Man's Shop specialty, $30.00, $35.00, $40.00 and $45.00 Suits. We do, sir, but not these grades alone. Every suit priced from $12.50 up to $45.00 is specialized here. We are as careful in selecting fabrics for our $12.50 garments as we are other grades. We are particular as to tailoring, trimmings, workmanship, etc. We have a stock of handsome patterns and colors to offer you for spring wear "right off the bat," and every one a three-base hit, with good chances on a "home run," if you take a look at them. We want you to see our variety of new and exclusive patterns in the most fashionable gray fabrics for spring and summer wear, priced at $15, $18 and $20

Other Grades from $12.50

up to $45

313 East Broad Street.

EVIL OF DIVORCE SHOWN BY CHART

Professor Gaines, in First of Faculty Lectures, Tells How It Is Increasing.

The first of the series of five faculty lectures for the session was given at Richmond College last night by Professor R. E. Gaines on Graphical Methods.

In the introductory part of the lecture, attention was called to the fact that while geometry in the hands of the Greeks was developed to a high degree of perfection more than 2,000 years ago, it was centuries after that several times that mathematicians in trying to solve a specific problem have been led to the discovery of a new branch of mathematics. As an illustration of this the lecturer cited a case of two gamblers appealing to Pascal to know how in an interrupted game of cards the stakes should be divided. This question, the lecturer said, laid the foundations for the theory of probabilities.

Attended by Frenchman.

The lecturer, an Englishman, had a similar history. There was a

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Pianos that stand

There are many number of Pianos that look well and sound fairly well—AT THE START. You can buy cheap Pianos that do that; but a Piano should be made to last a lifetime. If it only "stands" a few months it is dear at any price.

Emerson Pianos

are of the kind that "STAND." They are safe instruments to buy. They stand the wear and tear of every day usage, and with ordinary care three generations of children may practice on one. Besides their known goodness you have our guarantee—exchange if not satisfactory.

The Crafts Piano Co.,

Fifth and Grace Streets

That Engagement or Wedding Ring

Certainly it must be a dependable one—one that time cannot change nor use make less beautiful.

Never have we offered a more varied showing of more excellent, charming Rings of first quality.

There is not a stone nor a shape that isn't ready for you and for "Her."

J. T. Allen & Co.,

Jewelers, Fourteenth and Main Streets, Richmond, Va.

BIG GAIN FOR DEMOCRATS

Get Majority in Chicago City Council for First Time in Many Years.

Chicago, Ill., April 5.—Democrats today gained a majority in the City Council for the first time in several years. Of the 35 Aldermen chosen, from each ward, the Democrats elected 21, the Republicans 12, and the Independents 2.

The new Council will be composed of 23 Democrats, 29 Republicans, and 2 Independents.

Excuse for the arrests of about forty saloonkeepers for keeping open during voting time, the election was made.

problem for more than thirteen centuries mathematicians had tried to solve until in 1637 it was attacked by the great French philosopher and mathematician, De Cartes. The method which he devised for solving this problem is the foundation of what is now known as the method of Cartesian co-ordinates, named in honor of the inventor. The lecturer explained by black-board illustrations how, if two variable quantities are related to each other, by a definite law, which can be expressed by an algebraic equation, the relation between them can be graphically represented by a curve, which will sometimes give at a glance information which otherwise could be obtained only by a considerable study.

It was one of the incidents of the use of the by-products—which the lecturer dwelt most upon. There is a ready-made tendency to exaggerate the value of the curve, which is a very interesting and useful form. Sometimes a writer will give in a single diagram a few curves which will sum up the results of several pages of statistics. This not only presents the matter in concise form and fixes the main facts indelibly upon the mind, but it often brings to light correspondences of contrast which were before quite concealed from view.

The lecturer exhibited a number of charts which illustrated this use of the curve. A very interesting one contrasted the growth of population in the United States with that in European countries for a whole century. The curve for the United States swept across all of the other curves except that for Russia. Another chart of special local interest presented the business of Richmond for the last ten years, giving the increase in the total resources, the individual deposits, and the business of the banks in other cities. All of these curves showed the effects of financial depression in 1908-1909.

Death Rate Charts.

Other charts showed death rates from certain diseases for different months of the year or different periods of life or different occupations, or different localities. One chart comparing the death rate in the city showed that the death rate in the city was higher than that in the country for diphtheria, measles, etc. There was one disease from which there were more deaths in the country than in the city—dysentery. "So," said the lecturer, "if you remain in the city you will die of some of these diseases, and if you go to the country you will die of old age—so there is no escape for you."

Another series of charts dealt with the question of divorce and showed how rapidly the granting of divorces is increasing in some sections of the country in comparison with others.

CAME UP FROM SEA AS IF FROM DEAD

Wife, Mother and Neighbors Welcome Capt. Quillin and Crew.

New York, April 5.—Capt. R. P. Quillin, of the last American schooner Edgar C. Ross, was hailed as one resurrected from the dead when he arrived here yesterday with five of his crew on the Lamport and Holt liner Verdi from Buenos Ayres. His mother and his wife, with neighbors, who had come on from Bethel, Del., met the Verdi at Quarantine on a chartered tug.

Cheers greeted the little captain, who is only five feet three and has not yet reached his twenty-sixth year, as he stood at the steamer's rail. His mother, a handsome matron, with a still unwrinkled face, stood on the upper deck of the tug with one arm around the slim waist of her son's wife. Mrs. Quillin, Jr., is fair headed, blue eyed and still in her teens. Her eyes shone with pride as she waved her handkerchief and threw kisses to her husband.

The tug was not permitted to take off the captain without a resuary permit. It is to trail the ship through the mist to Pier No. 12, in Brooklyn, where the wife and mother had their first chance to embrace and welcome the one who had been given up as lost. A royal welcome awaits Quillin at Bethel.

The lumber laden, left Charles River on December 22. On Christmas Day she was struck by a westerly gale that lasted until January 10, when all of her boats had been washed away, her decks swept clean and every water cask swept afloat. The Norwegian schooner, the Croby, supplied her with fresh provisions. Capt. Quillin decided not to abandon his vessel.

Three days later, with an exhausted crew toiling at the pumps, he hoisted signals of distress. The British ship Erne took off the men and carried them to Buenos Ayres. One of the crew, John Flynn, had been crushed by a wave against the wheel and so injured that he died on January 18 and was buried at sea.

GAINS FOR THE "WETS"

Incomplete Returns From Local Option Elections in Illinois.

Chicago, Ill., April 5.—Incomplete returns from the local option election, held in 210 cities and towns throughout Illinois today, showed gains for the "wets." These figures show that thirty-two towns had changed from "dry" to "wet," and thirteen changed from "wet" to "dry." Of ninety-three towns, forty-eight voted "wet."

THE HOME HOTEL OF NEW YORK

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street.

Much has been published about the newer hotels of New York City. Their size, their magnificence, their capacity, and the millions expended upon them have been repeatedly set forth; but little attention has been given to their "home features." No matter how gorgeous a hotel may be, it is unsatisfactory to the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The "hurry-burry" may please for a time, but it is never restful, and the hotel that is not a home fails to attract guests to a second visit, and eventually finds itself lacking in popularity.

The Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, while it is one of the most exquisitely furnished hotels in New York, was not content with the usual equipment and secure homeliness and individual comfort. It is managed and operated upon this standard. No detail of management is sacrificed to the desire of the traveler who desires a quiet and restful seclusion if it lacks "home comforts." The